

20th KESWICK FILM FESTIVAL

28th February – 3rd March 2019

PRESS RELEASE

FEBRUARY 2019

Alice Lowe to guest at Keswick Film Festival

Keswick Film Festival's gala screening of Sometimes Always Never on Saturday 2nd March will be even more of a special occasion as one of the film's stars, Alice Lowe will be at the Theatre by the Lake to take part in a Q&A after the screening, with Director Carl Hunter.

Alice is no stranger to Keswick. She starred in and co-wrote the wonderful black comedy Sightseers, released back in 2012, which featured the Pencil Museum as a key location in her character's bizarre and murderous adventures.

Since then she has been a regular face on both the small screen (Inside Number 9, Hang-ups) and the big screen, notably as writer, director and star of Prevenge – all activities undertaken while 7 months pregnant!

The Festival team has taken the opportunity to screen Prevenge, described as 'a pitch black, wryly British comedy', on Saturday afternoon and joint tickets to see both Prevenge and Sometimes Always Never for just £10 are on sale from the Theatre by the Lake.

Festival Director Ian Payne said 'Alice being here for our 20th Film Festival will be the icing on the cake. She is hugely talented both in front of and behind the camera and her Q&A will be fascinating. I think Keswick has a special place in her heart after Sightseers – when she tweeted that she was coming to KFF she also said @pencilmuseum here we come!'
